

Ankur Kumar

Entry-Level Java Backend Developer

PROFILE

Java developer and newly enrolled BCA student focused on backend engineering. Building hands-on projects with Java, Spring Boot, REST APIs, databases, and distributed-system technologies. Currently developing practical knowledge of microservices, Kafka, Redis, Kubernetes, and cloud-native application architecture.

PROJECTS

Banking Management System

Java • Spring Boot • MySQL • JPA/Hibernate • REST API

- Built a layered backend for user and account management with DTOs, validation, service/repository separation, and centralized exception handling.
- Implemented duplicate-email validation and REST endpoints for creating, retrieving, and updating users.
- Practiced production-oriented backend structure, persistence, API testing, and clean separation of responsibilities.

Library Management System

Java • Spring Boot • JPA/Hibernate • JUnit

- Designed a backend application around books, members, and lending workflows using a layered architecture.
- Created 81 automated JUnit tests to validate business logic and improve regression confidence.

Expense Tracker

Java • Object-Oriented Programming • Collections

- Developed an application for recording and organizing expenses while strengthening Java OOP, collections, and application-design fundamentals.

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Computer Applications (BCA)
